Judith of the Plains

By MARIE MANNING,
Author of "Lord Allingham, Bankrupt"

Copyright, 1905, by Harper & Brothers

"Once on a time when it paid to be a cattleman," began Peter, "there was an outfit near Laramie that hailed from the United Kingdom, every mother's son of them—a fine, mainly lot of fellows, but wedded to calamity along of their cooks. These unhappy Britons had every species of ill luck that could befall an outfit in the way of cooks. They were of every nationality, age and sex, and they stole, drank, quarreled, till the outfit determined to sweep the house clear of them and do its own cooking. Every man was to have a turn at it for a week. There were as many different kinds of indigestion as there were men in the outfit. They would beg to do night herding—anything to get them away from that ranch. Finally when their little tummies got so bad that their overcoats thickened or wore through, or whatever happens to stomachs' overcoats that are treated unkindly, some one's maiden aunt sent him a treat saying that rice was the salvation of the human race, as witness the Chinese. Whosoever's turn it was to cook that week determined to try the old lady's prescription. Rice was procured, about a peck, I think, and the man who was cooking, poor Tom, put the entire quantity on to boil in a huge ham boiler over a slow fire, as per the directions of the maiden aunt. The rice seemed to be doing nicely when some one came in and said that a bunch of antelope was over on the hills and there was a good chance to get a couple. Every man got his gun, all but the cook, and he looked at the rice, that hadn't done a thing over the slow fire, in a way that would melt your heart. Just my luck that it should be my week to pot wrestle when there's good hunting right at one's front door!"

"Oh, come on," some one said. "Didn't Kellett's aunt say the rice ought to be cooked over a slow fire? Kellett, get your aunt's letter and read the directions for cooking that rice again."

"The cook didn't need a second invitation, and they got into their saddles, cook and all, and went for the antelope."

"Now, antelope are not like stationary washbats; they move about. And when that particular outfit arrived at the spot where those antelope were last seen they had moved, but the boys found traces of them and continued on their trail. They went in the foothills and they searched for those antelope all day. They caught up with old man Hall's outfit at dinner time and were invited to take a bite. Coming home by way of the Circle Star ranch, Colonel Semmes asked them in to have a mint julep—the colonel was a South Carolinian and he had just succeeded in raising some mint. They had several—I fear more than several—drinks before leaving for home, with never a trace of antelope nor a thought of the rice cooking over the slow fire. The colonel remembered some hard cider that he had, and topping off on that they set out. The weather was pretty warm and on their way home they experienced some remorse over the hard cider. Now hard cider is an accumulative drink; it piles up interest like debt or unpaid taxes. And by the time those Englishmen had turned the little lane leading into their home corral they saw a sight that made their sombreros rise. As I have said before, it was hot, being somewhere in the month of August. Gentlemen, I hardly expect you to believe me when I say it was snowing on their house, and not on another blessed thing in the landscape.

"The blamed thing about it was that every man took the phenomenon to be his own private view of snakes, or their bibulous equivalent, manifested in another and more terrifying form. But when they got a bit closer the horror increased. Flying right out of their windows were perfect drifts of snow, banks of it, gentlemen, and the thermometer up past a hundred. One of the men looked about him and noticed the pallor on the faces of the rest."

"Do you notice anything strange, old chap? These cursed American drinks!" "Strange!" The boy he had spoken to was about eighteen, a nice, red cheeked English lad, out with his uncle learning the cattle business. "I've always tried to lead a good life, and here I am a parrot before I've come of age."

"They halted their horses and held a consultation. The boss came to the conclusion that since they had all seen it there was nothing to do but continue the investigation, so he got down from his horse and walked toward the door of the house. At his approach, as if to rebuke his wanton curiosity, a great blast of snow blew out of the window and got him full in the face. He howled—the snow was scalding hot.

"Then they remembered the rice."

"Is that all?" demanded the man who had wanted to talk about rustling. "Isn't it enough?" said Peter, who could afford to be magnanimous, now that he had accomplished his point.

"When I first heard that story, 'bout ten years ago, it ended with the Britishers riding over to the Wolcott ranch to borrow umbrellas to keep off the hot while they got into the house," said the man, still sulky.

"That's the way they tell it to tenderfoot," And Peter turned on his heel. The story telling for the evening was over; the boys got their blankets and set about making their beds for the night.

CHAPTER XII.

THE first day spent as governess to the family of Yellett reminded Mary Carmichael of those days mentioned in the opening chapter of Genesis, days wherein whole geological ages developed and decayed. Any era, geological or otherwise, she felt might have had its rise, decline and fall during that first day spent in a sheep camp.

She awoke to the sound of faint tinklings, and accepted the towering peaks of the Wind River mountains, with their snowy mantles all shadowy in the whitening dawn and the warmer grays of huddling foothills, as one receives, without question, the fantastic visions of sleep. The faint tinkling grew nearer, mingled with a light pitter patter and a faroff baaing and bleating. Then, as shadowy as the sheep in dreams, a great flock came winding round the hill. In and out through the sagebrush they went and came, elusive as the early morning shadows they moved among. The air was crystalline and sparkling. Creation's first morning could not have promised more. It would have been inconsistent in such a place to waken in a house. The desert, that seemed a lifeless sea, the sheep moving like gray shadows, were all parts of a big new world that had no need of houses built by hands.

Ben, oldest of the Broddingnag tribe, who had greeted Mary's request to be directed to "the house" as a bit of dry eastern humor, led the herd to pasture. Two other male Broddingnags came from some sequestered spot in the landscape and joined Ben. Mary recognized two more pupils.

Mrs. Yellett then unrolled the pillow constructed the night previous of such garments as she had been willing to dispense with and put them on. The vastness of her surroundings did not prevent her from locating the minutest article, and Mary gave her the respectful admiration of a woman who has spent a great deal of time searching for things in an infinitely smaller space. The matriarch then called the remaining members of her household officially. The Misses Yellett accomplished their early morning toilets with the simplicity of young robins. Only the new governess hung back, but finally mustered up enough courage to say that if such a thing was possible she would like to have a bath.

Mrs. Yellett greeted her request with the amused tolerance of one who has never given such a trifle a thought.

"The habit of bathing," she commented, "is shore like religion—they that observe it wonders how them that neglects it gets along." She beckoned Mary to follow and led the way to a bunch of willows that grew about a stone's throw from the camp. "Here be a whole creek full of water, if you don't lack the fortitude. It's cold enough to sell for 10 cents a glass down to Texas."

Somewhat dismayed, Mary stepped gingerly into the creek. Its intense cold numbed her at first, but a second later awoke all her young lustiness, and she returned to camp in a fine glow of courage to encounter whatever else there might be of novelty. Mrs. Yellett was preparing breakfast at a sheet iron stove, assisted by Cacta and Clematis.

Ned had shot an antelope a day or two previous, and antelope steak, broiled over a glowing bed of wood coals, with black coffee, stewed dried apples and soda biscuit made up what Mary found to be an unexpectedly palatable breakfast.

The family sat on the grass, tailor fashion, and every one helped himself to what appetite prompted, in a fashion that suggested gymnastic powers. To pass a dish to any one, the governess discovered, was construed as an evidence of mental weakness and eccentricity.

Breakfast was half over when Mrs. Yellett laid down her knife, which she had handled throughout the meal with masterly efficiency. Mary watched her in hopeless embarrassment and wondered if her own timid use of a tin fork could be construed as an unfriendly comment upon the Yelletts' more simple and direct code of table etiquette.

"Land's sakes, I just felt, all the time we've been eating, we was forgettin' something. You children ought to remember. I got so much on my mind."

All eyes turned anxiously to the cooking stove, while an expression of frank regret began to settle over the different faces. The backbone of their appetites had been broken, and there was something else, perhaps something even more appetizing, to come.

Interpreting the trend of their glance and expression, up flared Mrs. Yellett, with as great a show of indignation as if some one had set a match to her petticoats.

"I declare, I never see such children; no more nacherl feelin's than a herd of coyotes; never thinks of a plumb thing but grub. No; make no mistake about the character of the object we've forgot. 'Tain't sweet potatoes, 'tain't molasses, 'tain't corn bread—it's paw! It's your pore old paw—him settin' in the tent, forsook and neglected by his own children."

FIRE AND SWORD

Russia Confronts a Situation of Growing Seriousness.

KISHINEFF IN FLAMES

Anti-Jewish Outbreak It Is Reported Has Resulted in Total Destruction of the City.

Manufacturing Suburbs of Odessa It Is Also Reported Have Been Devastated.

London, Nov. 4.—All Russian dispatches are still suffering considerable telegraphic delay. Apparently the text of the amnesty ukase has not yet been published. It is expected that it will be today, but possibly its publication may be postponed until Sunday. Many correspondents in Odessa and elsewhere report danger and difficulty attending the dispatch of their reports, and they are obliged to seek the aid and protection of the military. All dispatches received here go to confirm the continued seriousness of the situation throughout Russia, especially the anti-Jewish excesses.

The Daily Mail's Odessa correspondent gives an unconfirmed report that Kishineff has been absolutely destroyed by fire. He says that the three suburbs of Odessa, Persessyp, Zastava and Moldavanka, have been completely devastated.

The Kieff correspondent of the same paper says that the British consulate has been riddled with bullets. The situation there, he adds, however, is improving, but during the riots bands of rowdies stopped everybody in carriage or afoot and compelled all to prove they were not Jews before permitting them to go on. Ladies' dresses were torn open to discover if they were wearing crosses. The British consul was stopped by soldiers, with leveled rifles, who, however, permitted the mob to wreck the house of a wealthy Jew. Nearly all the houses and shops display eikons and other Christian emblems.

A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from St. Petersburg states that Prince Alexis Obolensky has been appointed procurator of the holy synod. The Daily Telegraph's Odessa correspondent also reports Kishineff in flames.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from St. Petersburg reports the discovery of a plot to massacre the Jews in that city. It is semi-officially calculated, says the correspondent, that at least 1,000 persons have been killed and 10,000 seriously wounded in the leading fifty provincial towns of Russia in the last twenty-four hours, and the death-roll is still mounting.

ARMY IS MUTINOUS

Officers Declare the Soldiers Are Ripe for Insurrection.

Warsaw, Nov. 4.—At a socialist mass meeting last evening two infantry soldiers in full uniform delivered revolutionary speeches, assuring their hearers that the revolutionary propaganda was growing in the army and that the time was not far remote when the army would join in a revolution to overthrow a despotic throne. The authorities have released 350 political offenders who were imprisoned in the citadel.

Terror Still Reigns at Odessa.

Odessa, Nov. 4.—On this, the fifth day of terror, the peaceful population is practically under a state of siege. Even the markets and restaurants are closed, and it is impossible to get bread or meat. The mob yesterday pillaged a number of Jewish shops in the main streets, and among others the biggest wholesale grocery, that of Rabinovitch. The rioters also burned three factories and killed a physician and two assistants who were dressing wounds. Last evening the rioters pillaged the biggest dry goods stores in the city. The loss in this case is estimated at $175,000. A hardware store was also looted, involving a loss of $100,000. In addition twelve fur stores were sacked. The consulates and hotels are guarded by troops.

Anti-Jewish Excesses.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—The Tageblatt prints the following dispatch from the Jewish owner of three houses in Kieff: "Anti-Jewish excesses have been raging here for three days, and all the Jewish shops and many private houses have been totally destroyed. The number of Jewish victims is large and children and old people have been barbarously murdered while the military and police looked on with cynical indifference. The situation is desperate."

Situation at Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—All is quiet here. There is no attempt at holding processions, and the Cossack patrols are everywhere. Shops have been barricaded and railroad communication with the frontier has not yet been restored. The newspapers appeared today, and the electric lighting plant is again in operation.

Reval, Nov. 4.—Warships have sailed from here for Helsingfors.

A "STRAW" AT INDIANAPOLIS

Betting Boards Declare Bookwalter's Coming Election.

Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—The betting on the local municipal election next Tuesday was heavier than ever today. All the money offered by the backers of Mayor Holtzman was quickly taken by the Bookwalter men, who have given up hope of getting anything like even figures. The Holtzman men are again demanding 2 for 1, and Bookwalter's followers are offering 5 to 3½ as a rule, although many bets were posted today at 10 to 6. Around the betting boards most of the people seem to concede that Bookwalter will be elected, and from now on most of the money will be wagered on pluralities. There are fewer takers of the offers that Bookwalter's plurality will not exceed 1,500. All of the candidates will close their campaign Monday night. Addison C. Harris, former minister to Austria, addressed a Bookwalter meeting on the south side last night, devoting most of his time to appealing to Republicans to be loyal to their party and support the ticket.

B. A. Kinney, state gas inspector, expressed the opinion here today that all the well water used for drinking purposes in the gas belt may become unfit for use because of the improper plugging of abandoned gas wells. Rather than go to the necessary expense of plugging the wells as they should be, many of the owners are pulling up the casings, permitting the salt water to mix with surface water that is used for drinking. He said that many of the wells in the old gas field are being tainted with salt to a very noticeable extent. The only way to remedy the situation in his opinion is to plug the gas wells as the law provides. Kinney declared that the gas field is not entirely exhausted as generally believed, as the Chicago Gas company is drilling about twenty wells near Greentown, Howard county, and some of them promise to be good producers. There is a pressure of from 40 to 100 pounds in the old fields, according to his statement. He also declared that the gas wells that are being found in the southern part of the state will be short-lived, as they are from "pockets."

The municipal elections Tuesday will be the first under the new code enacted at the recent session of the legislature, and while the winners will serve four instead of two years, as under the old law, much less party spirit than ever before is being manifested. Outside of Indianapolis practically no appeal is being made to party prejudices. Elsewhere neither party has attempted to thresh out national issues, and almost without exception the campaigns are along lines that are strictly local. The absence of party politics has been so marked, in fact, that it is causing comment and is being attributed to a tendency that has been growing in Indiana during the past decade to cut out party strife in municipal elections. Under the circumstances the general result will not bear much political significance.

The first quarterly payment of pensions from the offices in the new federal building began today. Within the next eight days about 62,000 checks will be drawn and mailed to the soldiers of the state. About $2,600,000 will be paid out this quarter. The pension department occupies over half of the third floor of the new building, and has one of the finest suites of offices of any pension department in the country.

BY PLEADING GUILTY

Thomas Mulcahey Ends Sensational Murder Trial.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 4.—In the Lake superior court the Thomas Mulcahey murder case came to an abrupt termination, and Mulcahey, who the previous night slept in the shadow of the gallows, found himself committed to the Indiana reformatory under the indeterminate sentence act for manslaughter. The state had prepared for a stubborn and protracted trial. When Mulcahey was arraigned before Judge Harry B. Tuthill of Michigan City, his attorney, William J. McAfee, announced that his client was prepared to enter a plea of guilty to manslaughter. As the state had only been able to secure one eyewitness to the tragedy, owing to the flight of the inmates of the resort where Rudolph Koch was killed before they could be arrested, the prosecuting attorney agreed to unite in the request that the defendant be permitted to enter the plea.

Suit on Old Note.

Brook, Ind., Nov. 4.—Hamilton Jackson in 1868 executed a note, payable one day after death to his wife, calling for $300, and in 1904 he mysteriously disappeared from home, and two weeks later was found frozen to death under a culvert near St. Louis. No children resulted from the union of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, and now the heirs of Mr. Jackson are suing to collect the principal and interest, the last named covering thirty-eight years.

What Caused Massacre.

London, Nov. 4.—A dispatch to the Daily Express from Hong Kong says that the Lienchau massacre was due to the unhappy action of Mrs. Machie, who on the refusal of some of the members of a native procession to desert from worshipping the idols they carried, seized the idols and declined to restore them to their owners. Thereupon the infuriated processionists surrounded and destroyed the mission and assaulted the inmates. They then murdered them and threw their bodies into the river. The mob did not interfere with six French priests who resided in the neighborhood.

PRINCE WELCOMED

Louis of Battenburg Given Warm Greeting by President Roosevelt.

MESSAGE OF GOOD WILL

The British Admiral Prince Carried a Personal Message to President From King Edward.

Not Since Prince Henry of Prussia Was Here Has There Been Such a Reception.

Washington, Nov. 4.—With great éclat Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenburg was received by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The prince was the bearer of a personal message of good will from King Edward to President Roosevelt, and was presented to the president by Sir Henry Mortimer

REAR ADMIRAL PRINCE LOUIS OF BATTENBURG.

Durand, the British ambassador. The presentation was made the occasion for a brilliant reception. Last night the British ambassador and Lady Durand gave a state dinner to their distinguished house guest, followed by a large reception and ball. Not since Prince Henry of Prussia was a guest of the German embassy at Washington has a royal visitor been the recipient of greater honors than those with which Britain's admiral prince has been welcomed to the national capital. Save for the absence of military honors, the prince's entry to the capital was invested with as much ceremony as that which made memorable the greeting to the Prussian prince several years ago. It was the busiest day he has spent since the party arrived off Annapolis Wednesday.

This evening the prince will be the guest of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt at a state dinner.

BLOCKED THE INQUIRY

Important Witnesses in Car Line Investigation Refuse to Answer.

Washington, Nov. 4.—President Robbins of the Armour car lines and Traffic Manager Sproule of the Southern Pacific company declined to answer questions put to them by the interstate commerce commission in the private car line inquiry, both acting under instructions of their counsel. The examination of Mr. Robbins was intended to show that the Armour car lines, through Armour & Co., or other concerns controlled by the same interests, is engaged in business other than that of leasing cars to railroads and refrigerating perisnane shipments. Mr. Sproule was examined regarding an alleged "pooling contract" between the South Pacific and South California railroads. When the information was denied to the commission it was announced that the hearings would be adjourned indefinitely. No action was taken regarding the declarations.

Ubero Money Disappears.

Boston, Nov. 4.—The receivers of the Consolidated Ubero Plantation company, which has plantations in Mexico, have filed a suit in the state supreme court against the officers and directors of the corporation, seeking an accounting of some of the money alleged to have been lost. It is alleged that the money has disappeared by reason of fraudulent and negligent acts of the defendants.

Judge Penfield Coming Home.

Rio Janeiro, Nov. 4.—Judge William L. Penfield, solicitor of the state department at Washington, who has been visiting Central and South American republics to investigate the trade relations of those countries and Europe with the view of improving American commerce with the countries lying to the south of the United States, has sailed for New York on the British steamer Tennyson.

The Vice President's Plans.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Vice President Fairbanks paid his respects to President Roosevelt, calling at the White House. He said he would remain in Washington for a day or two and then go to the laying of the cornerstone of the McKinley memorial at Canton, Ohio, Nov. 13.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 4.—C. H. Gelst of Philadelphia, who is president of gas companies controlling plants in sixty different municipalities, has bought the South Bend and Mishawaka gas plants. Mr. Gelst's company owns various Indiana plants.

Jasper, Ind., Nov. 4.—A large panther has been seen roaming the woods in this vicinity and a party of men are searching for the animal. The beast was seen a short distance from where John Trusty killed a panther a few years ago.

Is the feeling and plaint of women who are "run-down" so low that work drags, head aches, back aches, hands tremble, voice quivers, little things annoy and "everything goes wrong."

Look the other way just a minute and see what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for more than a half-million women in the last thirty years. What it has done for others it can do for you.

Believing that alcoholic, stimulating, medicinal were doing much harm, Doctor R. V. Pierce turned his investigating mind upon the problem of producing a remedy for the use of weak and suffering women that should be free from alcohol and at the same time EFFECTIVE AND SAFE.

Nature has provided abundantly for such needs and Dr. Pierce found in native medicinal plants such as the roots of GOLDEN SEAL, LADY'S SLIPPER, BLACK COCOON, CICOON and BLUE COCOON, the needed medicinal properties which by peculiar processes strictly his own, without the use of alcohol, he has extracted, preserved and combined in exact proportions to secure from each its best effect. Thus compounded his "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" is a remedy for the pains and drags, weaknesses and inflammation of the uterine system, that has won worldwide fame by curing more than ninety-nine out of every hundred who have used it properly.

DRINK

Bars Men from Employment

Every line of business is beginning to shut its doors absolutely to drinking men. Business competition has become so keen that only men of steadfast habits can find employment.

Employers do not want men that are addicted to drink. A drinking man is not in fit condition to handle responsible work. Continual drinking diseases the nerve system. No "will power" can cure; treatment is necessary.

Republican City Ticket.

For Mayor,
GEORGE G. GRAESSLE.
For Clerk,
FRED EVERBACK.
For Treasurer,
JAMES H. BOAKE.
For Councilmen-at-Large,
W. JESSE WEAVER,
HAL A. LOVE.
Councilmen,
1st Ward—SAMUEL HODAPP,
2nd Ward—AUGUST CORDES,
3rd Ward—JOSEPH BROWN,
4th Ward—JNO. W. MORTON,
5th Ward—FRANK BRETHAUER.

To VOTE a straight republican ticket make a cross (X) within the circle surrounding the eagle.

The republican ticket is made up of first class men. You make no mistake when you give these men your support and vote.

An old Confederate in Richmond, Va., says that the people of that region rank President Roosevelt with Washington and Jefferson. Then he adds that this is saying a good deal for Virginians.

Every one knows that Fred Everback is a most capable city clerk. He has proved his worth by his work. He will be re-elected as he so richly deserves. Vote for Everback and you make no mistake.

The President's order that heads of departments may dismiss incompetent officers without waiting for permission from the civil service commission or from anybody else is simply a business ruling absolutely necessary to effective service.

The students of St. John's school at Manlius, New York, has passed resolutions to drop the game of football, except among themselves until the game of football has been cleansed of its unnecessary roughness and brutality. They lay the blame upon professionalism and false scholarships at some colleges and universities.

JOHN W. KERN, the well known democratic leader said in a recent speech, "I am a lifelong Democrat and twice in my own State I have carried my party banner as a candidate for office although I went down to defeat. We are here to endorse President Roosevelt's plan. No President of the United States since George Washington has received the united, loving support of the entire people as has Theodore Roosevelt."

MAYOR GRAESSLE has demonstrated his eminent fitness for the office which he holds and the people know that the business of the city is in safe hands when entrusted to him. He is not an experiment. He has been tested and the people of Seymour know that he is a most capable and trustworthy official. He will be re-elected as he deserves to be. Give your support and vote to Dr. Graessle and you make no mistake.

THE voters of this city will do themselves credit by electing James H. Boake city treasurer. This office is one of large importance to the taxpayers as the people well know. Mr. Boake has all the qualifications that go to make a first class officer. He is a high grade citizen, an experienced book keeper and a trained accountant. He is worthy and merits your support and influence.

SEE THAT MARK?

To vote a straight Republican ticket make a cross (X) within the circle which surrounds the eagle, as the one above is marked. Make no other mark on your ticket. Any other mark than the X will spoil your ballot and will lose your vote. Use nothing to mark the X but the blue pencil that will be given you by the poll clerk.

Should you by accident make any other mark on your ballot, return it to poll clerk and get a new one. Before leaving booth fold your ballot so that the face cannot be seen, and so that the initial of the poll clerk on the back can be seen.

THE republicans have nominated intelligent and trustworthy men for councilmen. They are all faithful and true representatives of the people and they will attend to the city's business honestly and intelligently. Give these men your earnest support and vote and you make no mistake.

THE people of our city will have but a few days more in which to consider their action at the approaching election. The election is of the greatest importance to our most immediate personal affairs. We are all much concerned in having the best possible administration. The republicans are fortunate in being able to present a ticket of exceptional strength throughout. We invite comparison by every fair minded voter. It will be found that the republican candidates are all men of ability, integrity, worthy purpose and energy. They are men that do things and do them right. No drones will be found in the list. It is important that the republican mayor be supported by a republican council. With such an administration there will be no uncertainty as to the future of our city. See to it that you secure the best and you will do so by voting for the republican candidates.

Ireland.

Lovers of the realistic will enjoy Morrissey's big scenic production, "Ireland," aided by the Hibernian troubadours and a company of select vaudevillians at the opera house Nov. 10.

This attraction is one of the biggest novelties and presents a most intellectual and entertaining program. The scenes of "Ireland" made famous to Americans by history, legend, story teller visitors and lecturers will be presented on the stage and pass in review, so life like that the beholder finds it hard to imagine he is only looking at a reproduction of the real thing.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS

A steam ditcher has been at work between here and North Vernon this week on the B. & O. This machine is a new invention and will cut a ditch along side the track and carry the dirt onto the cars.

What may be the first active steps in a fight between the Frisco and Southern Indiana railroad coal market were taken this week when the Frisco people refused to accept coal from the Southern Indiana railroad.

Motor cars are to be used on the sixteen-mile coal branch of the Vandallia road in Green county. The motor adopted is of the same type as those planned and in service on the Union Pacific. The cars carry about sixty people and readily run thirty-five to forty miles an hour.

DIED.

DENNISON.—Daniel W. Dennison, well known to all in this city and vicinity, died at one o'clock this afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Adams on West Tipton street, at the age of seventy years and three days. His condition has been critical for the past two weeks after six years of failing health.

Mr. Dennison was born Nov. 1, 1835 on his father's farm in Redding township, where he spent forty-four years of his life. On Aug. 4, 1884 he was married to Miss Laura Anderson and to this union were born two children, one of whom died in infancy, while his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Adams and one grand-daughter, Belle, survive. During the civil war he served in Company G, 67th Indiana Regiment. Twenty-six years ago he moved with his family to Seymour and was employed as clerk in John Lauster's grocery store. Leaving there he was employed at the W. F. Peter's Drug store, which position he retained until six years ago when he was compelled to give up work on account of failing health. Mrs. Dennison died in July 1904.

Mr. Dennison has for the past fifty years been a member of the Christian church and has at all times lived a quiet, christian life, devoted to his family and their interests. He was a valued member of the I. O. O. F. and G. A. R.

The funeral services will take place Monday at two o'clock from the Central Christian church. Burial at Riverview and ceremonies in charge of I. O. O. F. and G. A. R.

Paying Their Taxes.

These are busy days for both the city and county treasurer as taxpaying time before the delinquent period will close next Monday. Let no one forget to attend to this matter before the office closes Monday night. Do not be the last man.

Fine Beets.

Andrew Kieth presented the Republican with a basket of large and very fine beets. Mr. Kieth raised them in his own garden in this city which is evidence that he knows how to cultivate vegetables.

Still Critical.

Relatives in this city have learned through a letter received today that Arthur Woodmansee, son of Frank Woodmansee, who has been in the hospital for some time at Indianapolis, is still in a very critical condition. His injured foot was amputated some time ago as a last resort but he does not improve as was hoped for.

Corn Shredding.

Chas. Roeger has just finished shredding twenty acres of corn that made 1256 bushels. The shredding was done in thirteen hours by Foster & Schrier, and is the best time yet reported for shredding.

The case of the State vs. Albert O. Short, with larceny, has been removed from Scott to Jackson county for trial at next term of court.

FULL OF OPTIMISM

Weekly Review of Trade Is of the Serenest Tone.

New York, Nov. 4.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Cold weather has further stimulated retail trade West and North, while higher cotton prices and practically the lifting of all quarantines have helped Southern demand and collections. Jobbing business continues in unusual volume for this season of the year, and holiday specialties show increased call. Spring demands are looming up in a number of lines, apparently foreshadowing a shorter than usual time between seasons. Industry generally shows unprecedented activity, with iron and steel a notable leader. The building trades, and therefore the demand for lumber and other materials, show unexampled movement for this season. Although the congestion in railway matters has been relieved at some points, notably at lake and rail centers, complaints as to car shortages affecting the movement of grain and collections come from the Northwest. Collections generally are freer and there are signs of the return movement from the country of currency balancing the outgo. Labor is occupied as rarely if ever before at this season; fear of the cotton mills strike has faded and reports from factories in widely separated sections are that they are running to their fullest capacity. All the measures of trade volume point to record totals in business operations, with a minimum of friction in the shape of embarrassments. Failure liabilities reflect the effects of sporadic, foolish or worse, banking methods other than structural weakness in general business. The outlook generally is an optimistic one and indicative of marked activity the coming winter.

Every Niece and Nephew of Uncle Sam should be deeply interested in what he has said about soda crackers, because they are the one food with which all of them are familiar.

Uncle Sam has given out figures showing that soda crackers are richer in nutriment and body-building elements, properly proportioned, than any food made from flour.

This is saying much for common soda crackers, and much more for Uneeda Biscuit, because they are soda crackers of the best quality. They are baked better—more scientifically. They are packed better—more cleanly. The damp, dust and odor proof package retains all the goodness and nutriment of the wheat, all the freshness of the best baking, all the purity of the cleanest bakeries.

Your Uncle Sam has shown what food he thinks best for his people. His people have shown that they think Uneeda Biscuit the best of that food, nearly 400,000,000 packages having already been consumed.

Second Lecture.

The Hon. R. S. Fulton, of Cincinnati, at the Presbyterian church last evening delivered the second number of the Art Lecture Course on the subject, "Rosalie Bonheur," which to many was more interesting and entertaining than the first. The illustrations from her work were beautiful and the need to cultivate what in one sense might be called the poetic or higher side of one's life was made evident. Such lectures are a help and benefit to the whole church and community.

Foot Ball.

The foot ball team of the Shields High School played their first game with an opposing team at the ball park this afternoon. The North Vernon team came over on No. 7 this morning and the game was called at 2:15 this afternoon. These games of the school should be well patronized as athletics is an essential part in a well rounded school life and should be encouraged in every way. This game is the first of a number to be given. The line up today was as follows:

"Pretty Peggy."

Jane Corcoran in the role of Peg Woffington at the opera house last evening was greeted by a very appreciative audience. Her supporting company was strong and her acting is in the general opinion of the playgoers thought to be the best ever seen in this city. The Seymour people are exceedingly fortunate in securing such high class play as "Pretty Peggy" seen last evening. The story of the love affair between Peg Woffington and David Garrick in its original setting and costumes of that long ago age is sure to please wherever produced.

Forced to Resign.

Because he is suffering from tuberculosis A. E. Pearce, principal of the schools at Hope, has been forced to tender his resignation to the County School Board, some of the patrons of the school having made complaint against him. Principal Pearce has handed in his resignation to take effect at once. This is the second resignation of teachers in Bartholomew county this year on account of tuberculosis.

Made Money.

Secretary Downing of the state board of agriculture has not yet filed with Governor Hanly a detailed report of the receipts and expenditures for the recent state fair, and probably will not be able to do so for several months, as it is a tedious matter to complete. He says, however, that the fair this year netted a clean profit of between $13,000 and $14,000, which will be applied on payment of the agricultural board's debt.

Indiana Stands Fourth.

The statement of the Postoffice Department relative to rural free delivery for October places the total number of routes in the country at 33,948, an increase of 1,893 since July 1. Illinois leads the list of States with a total of 2,608 routes. North Dakota has 2,392; Iowa, 2,184, and Indiana, 2,063. There are 4,335 applications pending.

Ducks Plentiful.

Lon Cox and Ed Godfrey, who are on a hunting expedition in the vicinity of Rockford today sent home twenty plump ducks, all the messenger could carry in one load. The huntsmen send home word that the river is almost blackened with these choice fowls and that they are killing them by the boatload.—Columbus Herald.

Executor.

Lowry Foster, one of the well known farmers of Redding township has been appointed executor of the estate of the late Joseph Ryan. The estate will be settled according to the will made by the deceased.

We desire to thank our friends and the G. A. R. Post for their kindness and sympathy at the death and burial of our dear husband and father.

SECOND SURVEY.

Traction People Pushing the Preliminary Work.

The surveying party that started out from this city two or three weeks ago surveying for the Louisville and Indianapolis Traction Company, has reached Seymour. At that point they met another surveying party working from Columbus south and representing the Indianapolis, Columbus and Southern. The survey is therefore complete from this city to Columbus from which point there is already connection with Indianapolis by electric railway. A second survey of the route will be immediately made and it is probable that the road will be in operation in a year or two.—Jeffersonville News.

It is the desire of the men back of these lines north and south to get everything possible done before winter weather. Contracts for grading and bridges will be let during the winter, so we are told, and a large force of men will be put to work early in the spring.

Free to You My Sister

Free to You and Every Sister Woman Suffering From Woman's Ailments.

I am a woman. I know as a woman what other women know. I know women's diseases. I have suffered as most women suffer, but I have cured myself. Not immediately, but suddenly, but I studied, experimented, investigated, searched the world for a cure for my own woman troubles.

And I found it. It cures the diseases of women. Women who yield to its strength. The suffering, ailing ones of our sex are brought again to the full flush and glow of girlhood days. What about your daughter—mother? Is it not your part to guard her, shield her from the exposure and humiliation of other treatment? Is there any real necessity for such an experience? Very seldom indeed. My Home Remedy has saved this dread ordeal to thousands of sensitive girls and young women. Will you not let me save your daughter's pride and modesty? My free ten-day test treatment will convince you that your care for her was wisely taken—and maybe at the very time of all others most necessary to prevent, or cure, before it is too late. These are the afflictions cured in thousands of authenticated cases by Mrs. M. Summer's Remedy for women—cures which are recorded—cures that keep cured, in fact and in truth. And in every one of all these cases I sent the proof test treatment complete and free, absolutely, every penny of the expense was mine, not one single cent was paid for by anyone—except by me alone. I will do as much for you, my sister, just as much for you as for any other—no matter who you are, or where you are, or how poor or how rich. That makes no difference to me—my sister.

Give yourself your ailing body self the benefit of your doubt, my sister, not the burden of it. For I will make you all your nature should have been—well—hearty—robust and plump, with all the color, glow and life of healthy womanhood. One line from your hand, to tell me where to send it—just your name and the address—and the cure will come by return mail—all sealed and prepaid—plain wrapper. Do not hide your womanhood from me, and the cure will come by return mail—all sealed and prepaid—plain wrapper. Do not hide your womanhood from me, and the cure will come by return mail—all sealed and prepaid—plain wrapper. Do not hide your womanhood from me, and the cure will come by return mail—all sealed and prepaid—plain wrapper.

STRONG BANK CRACKSMEN is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

HAD IT TO PAY

Son of William Waldorf Astor Taxed as an Alien.

New York, Nov. 4.—William Astor, son of William Waldorf Astor, was called on to pay a $2 tax as an alien before being admitted to the United States, on his arrival here on the steamer Cedric from Liverpool. This tax was levied under the section of the United States immigration laws requiring a head tax of $2 for every alien landing in this country.

Mr. Astor said in reply to a question as to his citizenship that he was an English resident. William Waldorf Astor, one of the largest holders of real estate in this city, lives in London and some years ago renounced his American citizenship and became a British subject.

The inspectors are more rigorous than usual about enforcing the payment of this tax since it has been learned that over thirty foreign cabin passengers on a liner which arrived recently escaped the tax by declaring themselves to be American citizens.

Sir Casper Purdon Clarke, the recently elected director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art of this city, was also called on to pay this tax.

LATEST DEVELOPMENT

Reputable Physician Arrested in Boston Murder Case.

Boston, Nov. 4.—Dr. Percy D. McLeod, a reputable physician of the Back Bay district, has been arrested on the charge of performing an illegal operation on Susan Geary, the Cambridge chorus girl whose remains were found in two suitcases in the waters of Boston harbor. Through the confession of Louis Crawford and William Howard, the two men arrested in New York, the authorities received evidence which in their opinion warranted the arrest of Dr. McLeod. It is alleged that Dr. McLeod was called into the case after the first operation was performed in the Tremont street office, and that he performed a second operation of a desperate nature in the vain attempt to save the life of the young woman. Miss Geary failing to recover, it is alleged that Dr. McLeod, in an effort to conceal the crime, dismembered the body.

Cracked His Last Bang.

Grayson, Ky., Nov. 4.—The Willard bank robber giving his name as Smith is dead from the gunshot wound received in the fight Tuesday. He said his right name was J. H. Rodderick, of Athens, Tenn.; that he had a wife and two children there. J. H. Kiffmeyer of the Cincinnati police department identified Smith as being an old-time bank burglar of Chicago.

Society Favorite in Trouble.

Hamilton, O., Nov. 4.—Hill House Brown, manager of the east end branch of the Bank of Hamilton, was arrested charged with embezzlement. His shortage is estimated at $2,500 to $3,000. Brown is the son of Adam Brown, postmaster, a bachelor and a big favorite in society.

Nothing Further to Do.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The case of United States Circuit Judge Baker of Indiana, charged by the civil service commission with soliciting campaign contributions, received some attention at the cabinet meeting, and it was the general opinion that no further proceedings are practical under the circumstances. An official statement on this case probably will be made in the next few days.

Cunliffe's Case.

Pittsburg, Nov. 4.—It is announced by the district attorney's office that Edward G. Cunliffe, the express robber, will be sentenced on Saturday, Nov. 11. Cunliffe, who pleaded guilty to two charges of larceny, can be only sentenced to six years in the penitentiary, three years each on the two counts of larceny, one for $100,000 and one for $1,000.

Are Continuing Their Bold Operations on Indiana Soil.

THEY FAILED AT ODOM

Door to Vault Was Shattered But the Inner Safe Escaped the Force of Dynamite.

Gang Probably Frightened Away Before Their Operations Were Concluded.

Odon, Ind., Nov. 4.—Four burglars, believed to be members of the gang that robbed the bank of Sandborn, were unsuccessful in an attempt to blow open the safe in the First National bank at Odon. Only one charge of nitroglycerine was discharged and the outer door of the vault was blown off, but the noise aroused the citizens and the burglars fled before anyone arrived on the scene.

When the armed men arrived at the bank they found the building wrecked, the vault door blown off and the furniture broken into bits.

In a shed near the building Jacob Shields, a young man of Odon, was found bound and gagged. He had been assaulted by the robbers, but he was not seriously injured. He said he was returning home from calling on his sweetheart when he was approached by two men, who seized and, at the point of a revolver, threatened to kill him if he made an outcry. He was hurriedly taken to the shed, where he was found bound hand and foot and gagged. He said there were four men in the gang and that none of the men wore masks.

Lawyer Cooper, president of the bank, said there is about $7,000 on deposit in the bank, but the money was found to be intact, as the inner safe was not forced. The robbers employed the same methods as the burglars used at Ridgeville, Hagerstown and Sandborn, and tools were stolen from a blacksmith shop to force an entrance to the bank building. Shields says he was robbed of $16 when he was bucked and gagged.

Tired of Delay

Attorney General to Bring Suit on Sherrick Notes.

Indianapolis, Ind., November 4.—Attorney General Charles W. Miller, who has charge of the settlement of the affairs of the late auditor, David E. Sherrick, says he will begin legal proceedings to recover on the note of the Hoosier Oil company unless the amount is paid soon. Eben H. Wolcott, former state senator, and others who indorsed the note, promised to settle the obligation within a short time after the auditor was deposed, and the attorney general is of the opinion they have had ample time to settle. Receiver John Reed and the attorney general have held several consultations regarding the payment of the note and it has been decided that the note must be paid within the next few days or legal proceedings will be instituted.

Collapsed When Sentenced.

Goshen, Ind., Nov. 4.—Wesley Lyons, whose motion for a new trial was denied, has been committed to prison under the indeterminate sentence act, besides which a fine of $1,000 was imposed. He was accused of assaulting two sixteen-year-old girls of Elkhart. Mr. Lyons is fifty-nine years old and the head of a well-known family. He collapsed when sentence was imposed.

Settled With Fines.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 4.—George Dowell was fined $75 and Charles Grishaw $50 by Judge Gerhart for having engaged in a duel with knives on the street a few weeks ago. Both men were unmercifully slashed and were confined to their beds for a number of days. They are rivals in the real estate business in this city.

Suicide by Hanging.

Bedford, Ind., Nov. 4.—Joseph Meek committed suicide at his home in this city by hanging himself in his barn. His relatives report that he was nearly 100 years old. He had been acting strangely for several weeks and had been declared a person of unsound mind. His removal to the insane hospital had been determined.

Running Without Government.

Danville, Ind., Nov. 4.—Judge Artman of the Boone county court has refused to dissolve the injunction against the town board of Danville, when the case was venued to Boone county, and this means that Danville will be without a governing body until Jan. 10, when the newly elected board qualifies.

A Farmer's Suicide.

Kentland, Ind., Nov. 4.—The dead body of Henry Janison, a farmer, four miles north of this place, was found in an old deserted barn near his home. A revolver was by his side, and there was a note addressed to his wife, stating that financial troubles was the cause of suicide.

Killed by Falling Slate.

Shoals, Ind., Nov. 4.—Joseph Bryant, miner, with a large family, was killed by falling slate.

Distinctively Different, In Every Way the Best

The Weekly Globe-Democrat, of St. Louis, covers a field peculiarly and exclusively its own.

It is issued twice every week, A big Semi-Weekly paper. Eight to ten large pages every Tuesday and Friday. One Dollar a year.

Nothing particularly different, you say, about that—there are other Twice-a-Week papers.

Yes, but the similarity ends there. No other paper is like the Globe-Democrat in any other respect. No other paper equals the Globe-Democrat in any respect.

An entirely unique feature of the Globe-Democrat, a feature which is highly praised by its readers, is its systematic method of preserving and presenting the Continuity of News.

The two papers each week, Tuesday and Friday, are carefully prepared with the view of giving the complete news of all the world for that week.

They are so combined in the make up as to form continued and connected stories of the various important events, showing the developments from day to day and the final results.

Other weekly and twice-a-week papers, as a rule, print only a few telegrams of the day of issue.

The "Twice-a-Week" Globe-Democrat gives the telegrams of every day in the week more comprehensively than the average Daily, and of more value to the average reader.

Moreover, the "Twice-a-week" Globe-Democrat is not simply an echo of the Daily edition.

It is a separate and distinct publication, especially prepared to supply the requirements of people who want all the news of all the earth—and something more.

It presents the World's daily history in concise but complete form. It is of equal interest in all parts of the United States. It is invaluable alike to men and women, young and old.

It thoroughly provides for every member of the family. In high-grade literature it particularly excels. Its market reports are correct and complete in every detail.

Its departments devoted to "The Home," "The Farm and Garden," "The Family Circle," "The Sunday School," "Science and Industry," are each and all The Best of their kind and either one is more than worth the subscription price of the paper.

In politics it is strictly Republican, but it is above all a newspaper, and tells the truth without fear or favor. It has no equal or rival as a great National news and home journal.

Remember the price, only One Dollar per year—104 papers—less than one cent a copy. Postage prepaid.

You will make no mistake if you send $1.00 today for a year's subscription. Or you can get your own paper One Year Without Cost by inducing two of your neighbors to subscribe and sending their names with $2.00.

FREE SAMPLE COPIES, containing order blanks and full particulars, will be cheerfully furnished upon receipt of postal card request. Address Globe Printing Company, publishers.
